ORDER -- NO.42, Finance, dated 23rd January 1952.

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 9 of the Madras Payment of salaries and Removal of Disqualifications Act 1951 (Madras Act XX of 1951) His Excellency the Governor of Madras hereby makes the following rules:--

RULES

1. These rules may be called the Madras Ministers' Travelling Allowance Rules 1951.

2. A ~~Minister~~ Minister may, when travelling by railway reserve a compartment for himself, if he deems it necessary to do so.

3. A Minister not travelling in a reserved compartment may draw a single fare of the class by which he actually travels and in addition three-fifths of a first class fare; but he shall himself pay for his private servants and personal luggage.

4. (1) When a Minister travels in a reserved compartment the charges for the compartment shall be borne by the Government department concerned, subject to adjustment with the Railway Administration as hereinafter provided and the Minister may draw only three-fifths of a first class fare.

(2) Persons travelling with the Minister in the reserved compartment shall pay the usual railway fares by purchasing first class tickets, and the Minister shall specify in his travelling allowance bill the number of persons who travelled with him and also certify therein that the necessary tickets were purchased by them.

(3) The fares paid by the persons travelling with the Minister shall be adjusted as follows:-

(a) When the number of persons occupying the compartment (including the Minister) exceeds the minimum number of fares for which the compartment can be reserved for a member of the public, the fares for the number of ~~xx~~ occupants in excess of such minumum shall be retained by the Railway Administration.

(b) Fares which are not so retained shall be credited to the Government department concerned by deduction from the bill submitted to it by the Railway Administrtion.

(4) Before begining his journey in the reserved compartment the Minister shall have the number and the other details of the tickets purchased for the persons travelling with him in the compartment, entered by the Stationmaster of the station from
